Bill Spaeth

Independent Insurance Broker
Atlanta, GA

My name is Bill Spaeth and, as an independent insurance broker with licenses in Georgia, Pennsylvania and Texas; I take great pride in providing solutions that improve the quality of life for my Clients and their Families. Please reach out to me if you ever need my assistance for life & health insurance needs, including innovative approaches to retirement or estate planning.

I am fortunate to have cross-functional experience in financial services (ten years), telecommunications (thirteen years) and manufacturing (five years). My commitment to my Customers is “do it right the first time, on time, every time” and “always make yourself available,” both guiding principles learned in manufacturing and start-up operations, including being the 30th employee of Nextel in April 1994.

A native of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, I obtained my Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Drexel University in Philadelphia and my MBA from Emory University’s Goizueta Business School in Atlanta, Georgia. While I attended Drexel University, I broke the school javelin record twice and was the 1988 Florida Relays champion in that event. Today, I am coaching my 14-year-old daughter to be the best she can be in lacrosse when she doesn’t need my help with her math homework.
